THE ROYAL SOCIETY

Membership for the academic year 2017 – 2018

We are looking for UK schools and colleges covering 5 – 18 education who are keen to explore and develop their existing STEM provision. We accept applications from those at the start of their journey or those who are well established and keen to share their stories. Wherever your starting point, the network aims to support and inspire you.

Benefits include:

- priority when applying for the Royal Society's Summer Science Exhibition;
- early notification of opportunities such as Partnership Grants and judging the Young People's Book Prize;
- financial support for your establishment's membership to subject specific organisations;
- opportunities to get involved in CPD activities; and
- clear signposts to key organisations and resources.

Members receive a certificate, Head teacher letter and charter mark to promote their membership.

Applications open: Friday 12 May

Applications close: Friday 16 June
